Meet Jack Curtice . . .

Head Coach and Athletic Director

New head man in Redskin athletic circles is Jack Curtice who replaced Ike Armstrong in mid-July when "Kickapoo Ike" pulled up stakes after 25 years to become athletic director for Minnesota's Golden Gophers.

Jack is the affable and rugged mentor who led Texas Western to the nation's ground gaining leadership for two years in a row and who copped fourth in total offense last year. This bodes ill for the other five old-guard teams of the late Skyline Six as well as for the two newcomers to what is now the Skyline Eight.

A commander in the Navy, Jack also has turned out top basketball teams and, time and again, has demonstrated his talents in booming up business for his former institutions.

Back in 1928 he set the TD pass record which stood as a national mark for many years. He pitched 23 strikes in one season—and hasn't forgotten that passing not only scores points but keeps patrons on their feet so much that they don't wear out the stadium seats so rapidly.

Jack (Pappy) Curtice was born in Glasgow, Ken., on May 24, 1907. As a youngster he spent several summers on his father's ranch in Calgary, Alta., Canada. He went to high school in Louisville and played on the mythical national championship high school football team in 1925.

Following his memorable years at Transylvania he coached at West Texas State and Texas Western. In special assignments he joined Frank Leahy to guide the College All-Stars to a 16-0 win over the Chicago Bears a few years back and, for British War Relief, coached the Southwest All-Stars to a 39-0 victory over St. Mary's. His final game for Teaxs Western was a 33-20 victory over Georgetown in the Sun Bowl last New Years Day.

There's much to be said about Jack Curtice, his charming wife and two peppy youngsters, his won lost record of just a shade off 80% (118 games won, 32 lost and 3 tied), and his dynamic personality. But you'll learn all about him in the next little while, so hang on TIGHT!

Assistant Coaches . . .

KARL SCHLECKMAN

Line Coach

"Punjab" is still recognized as one of the great linemen in conference history. Captain of the 1937 football and wrestling teams, Karl was unstoppable defensively and offensively in his tackle spot. He is a graduate of Granite High School where he is well remembered.

A line officer in the Navy, he served on APA and AKA-type ships. Karl spent one day on an LST but his bulk caused the little craft to ride dangerously low in the drink, so he was transferred to something more substantial. In addition to his line coach duties, Karl guides the varsity wrestlers.

FRANK BRICKEY

Backfield Coach

Here's the guy who puts the scat in the backs.

Frank is a grapefruit-land transfer from coaching football and basketball at Arizona State Teachers College at Flagstaff. He has some great material coming up this fall—and knows how to use it to advantage. Frank recently had a tangle with some steps and an arm load of groceries. The arm is now in a cast, but smart Ute footballers know he can carry a whip—and a bouquet—in either hand.

For two years in a row "The Brick" has turned out great freshman basketball teams. He has proved to be as likable as he is capable.

Assistant Coaches . . .

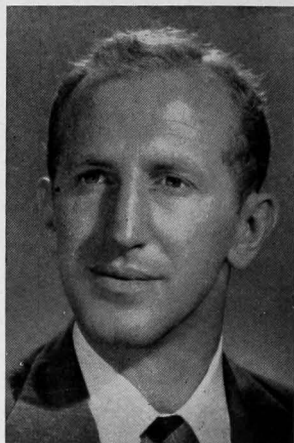

HENRY PIRO

End Coach

"Whitey" is just entering his second year on the Utah staff after having done a great job in his first year with Redskin wingmen. A terrific end at Syracuse, he coached there and at The Citadel, played end for the Philadelphia Eagles and was a player-coach for the Third Air Force.

Soft-spoken and gentlemanly, this Long Islandite Dutchman is able to get plenty of work out of his men. He trained under Ossie Solem, Ike Armstrong's former mentor, and has carried on the Utah tradition of turning out outstanding ends each season.

Recently had a cute addition to his family.

PETE CARLSTON

Freshman Coach

Big and smiling, Pete is the eyes and ears of the Redskins' search for talent. He has an uncanny knack for sizing up good prospective athletes. This talent comes from years of experience as a top performer and coach.

A great end for the Crimson and White, he has coached at Park City, Mesa Junior College in Grand Junction, Colo., and at Westminster College in Salt Lake City.

A former naval officer he also coaches varsity swimming and baseball and has done fine work in both places. Served under Jack Curtice in the Navy.

TODAY'S ARITHMETIC PROBLEM . . .

SIX GOES INTO EIGHT . . .

Hats off to the two new members of the Skyline Eight conference. Although they knocked the euphonious alliteration of the "Skyline Six" name a little awry, Montana State University in Missoula and New Mexico University in Albuquerque will bring with them a new harmony that should do wonders to perk things up in the mountains.

They're both old buddies of us Skyliners. For many years they have been booked on the football and basketball schedules of several hilltop schools. Now that the arrangement is permanent come 1951, no one will be happier than the University of Utah.

To Montana's Grizzlies and New Mexico's Lobo's go our congratulations and best wishes.

Behold the Conference Question Mark

Utah's Redskins are definitely the unknown quantity for 1950.

Let there be no mistake. The Utes have experience and talent but they also have only a handshaking acquaintance with their new coach, Jack Curtice. If anybody under the sun can mold that experience and that talent into a winning combination, it's Jack—but it won't be easy. New blood and enthusiasm can do a lot to fire up a team, but the three weeks between the time Jack meets his team and that first game with Idaho are going to go faster than salts through a tall Swede.

Nor will time hang heavy for the rest of the tough 1950 slate. After the Vandals, come Arizona's Wildcats. These boys were out-charged, out-distanced and out-everything-elses last year except out-fought and out-scored. Rest assured that they will be out to prove that their 12-12 tie was no fluke. Brigham Young's Cougars had their new coach last year; he had a tough season but knows his way around all too well now for comfort.

Over in the mile-high town of Denver the Pioneers are still gloating over the manner in which they out-pointed Utah last year. The Redskins scored three TD's on three sensational runs only to fall apart in the point-after department. This will be a fight to the finish and Jack knows it.

Wyoming has only defeated Utah once—and copped a conference championship in so doing last year. The southern Cowboys will be out to defend their crown right to the last dogie and magnolia blossom—and all this in Utah's Homecoming.

Colorado and Kansas will invade Salt Lake City on successive weekends. These Big Seven representatives show lots of power. Colorado is Utah's oldest rival and the teams enter the fray even-Steven. Kansas is a newcomer and a highly respected one at that.

Colorado A & M, coached by ex-Ute Bob Davis, will be out to upset the Braves once more. This is another red-hot one that should leave everyone hanging on the ropes at the final gun. On Turkey Day the wish bone will be fought over by Utah and their soil expert friends from Utah State.

Utah closes by taking its new coach on a nice air jaunt to the Pacific—North Korea permitting—to meet the Hawaiian Rainbows. Island-style ball is colorful and mighty good.

Jack Curtice, a nice guy and a dandy coach, has his job cut out for him. He wants to turn that shiny question mark into a glowing exclamation point. Don't be too surprised if he does it!

Jack (Pappy) Curtice is pretty hep when it comes to traveling. He had a nice trip to Hawaii all lined up for Dec. 1 with Texas Western. Now that he has a brand-new coaching job at Utah all that has changed . . . changed to a trip to Hawaii for Dec. 15 with the Utes. For a guy who modestly admits he won the war by supplying ping pong balls in correct amounts to the Navy, "Pappy" knows how to select his coaching jobs.

Meet the 1950 Redskins

ENDS

- HARLAN KOSMATA—Prepped up in Caldwell, Ida. . . . Not extra tall for an end, but full of plenty of smacko. . . . Showed up best on defense where he did a great job of diagnosing enemy plays. . . . Good offensive downfield blocker.
- JIM LASSETTER—The "you all" kid of the team. . . . Big, handsome and redhaired, Jim is a topflight offensive end. . . . A Tennessee boy, he played service ball from Virginia to Korea, if you'll pardon the expression. . . . Recently married.
- BOB LUNDQUIST—Big Ogden kid who is among the most promising freshmen in a long time. . . . Should make a powerful flankman in both offensive and defensive assignments. . . . Good looking boy, active in student affairs.
- DON PRICE—This Midvale kid did a great job last year. . . . Solid as the Rostrum Rock, Don proved to be plenty tough on opponents. . . . A good blocker, he can catch passes with the best of them. . . . He is also heavy hitter on the baseball club.
- DON PETERSON—Twice as hard for Pete to succeed because he's the tow-headed son of Vadal Peterson Utah's great basketball coach. . . . Doing it the hard way, Pete proved the real comer of Injun flankmen. . . . Blocked two-at-a-time more than once and made a beauty of a faking catch to set up the only Ute TD against College of the Pacific.

TACKLES

- GUY BRUNETTI—Switched from guard late last season. . . . Can play either post with plenty of gumption. . . . Tough and smart, this Midvale lad is an offensive specialist, but saw action defensively, too. . . . Bears a strong resemblance to Vic Mature of Hollywood fame.
- PETE DENERIS—Biggest man on the team at 6-4, 260 pounds. . . . Among the hardest workers on the team. . . . Loves football, but has had trouble getting up speed. . . . Played before World War II.
- GERALD PURDY—Played his first varsity ball last year, and made it a year to be remembered. . . . Big and blond, he mixed it up with the toughest lads in the conference and more than held his own. . . . He's a real comer. . . . Recently married.
- JOE TANGARO—Presenting the team clown. . . . President of the Associated Men Students' Council. . . . Joe's greatest job to date came against Arizona last year when he clobbered half the backs the Wildcats could supply. . . . Wants to play pro ball. . . . Is a vet of the Navy and of Carbon high school.
- JOHN VONDETTE—Played center as a frosh but put in a good year as a tackle last season. . . . Got his break when Rusty Thornton was hurt against Washington and more than made good. . . . Likeable and a hard worker, he's among the team's heaviest eaters. . . . Is called "Buns" by the boys because of his love of hard rolls—and everything else edible.

RAY WESTORT—Chicago boy. . . . Good prospective tackle. . . . Spent part of World War II in German concentration camp. . . . Golden Gloves Champ. . . . Should have a good year.

GUARDS

JAY BROWN—Is the other half of the 1-2 punch of Brunetti and Brown from high school days. . . . Moves fast and is a vicious tackler. . . . Understudied Wally Nalder until mass injuries moved him into starting assignments which he filled most capably. . . . Should have a good year.

LYNN CAHOON—Plans to join the legal eagles on graduating. . . . A three-letter man at Granite, he played a couple of 60-minute games last year. . . . A smoothie from the work "go," "The Duke" is a former naval air kaydet.

EUGENE CARSON—Weber College grad. . . . Commonly known as "The Rock" on defense. . . . Should see a lot of action defensively.

JOE HOFFMAN—Hails from Chicago. . . . Freshman last year. . . . Hard tackler—has Nalder's habit of being all over the field.

ROY MCLEESE—One of the few Judge Memorial gridders to make good at the U. . . . Short and stocky, Roy fills gaps like plastic wood. . . . Picked up some good seasoning last year getting in some good licks in almost every game.

BOB MOONEY—Played F.B. as freshman. . . . Moved to guard because of blocking and tackling ability. . . . Very good as defensive player. . . . Judge Memorial student.

BOB PALMER—Navy R.O.T.C. . . . Likes to play the game tough. . . . Although small he carries a lot of punch. . . . One of the twins.

KEN PALMER—Came to Utah as a navy student. . . . Like his twin brother—plays it tough. . . . A hard hitting lineman, he'll do the new coach lots of good.

BRUCE Warburton—Little East high whiz who surprised opponents last year. . . . Has a baby face and is mighty small for a guard, but Oh Brother! . . . Plays very much like Wally Nalder—all scrap and vinegar. . . . He'll see plenty of action come fall.

CENTERS

JIM DUBLINSKI—Promising freshman. . . . Has been handicapped with injuries. . . . The bad luck kid. . . . Will be ready for lots of ball come fall.

WESTON GARDNER—Injuries early in the season cut short the brilliance of this lad in 1949. . . . Best lineman on the field in the Washington game. . . . Life magazine boy and more than deserving of it. . . . Most conscientious kid on the team. . . . Keep a sharp lookout for this boy, because he's potential All-American stuff.

DON STEVENS—Came into his own last season when the Redskins switched to a two-center linebacking system. . . . Proved to be one of the hardest tacklers on the team. . . . Fast at filling holes, he was good on pass defense as well. . . . Did more work than the sports scribes might lead you to believe. . . . Is a weight man on the track team.

QUARTERBACKS

DAVE CUNNINGHAM—Emerged as Utah's scrappiest, snappiest field general in some time. . . . Throws a beautiful pass, long or short. . . . Coast J C transfer. . . . Watch him and Gardner team on QB sneaks. . . . Fast and alert on pass defense.

TOM DUBLINSKI—"Long Tom" can throw like a rifle. . . . lives within breathing distance of the Windy City. . . . Another sneak artist, he can count on brother Jim to help him rack up some yards in this department. . . . Is a hard worker in practice and showed improvement with each game.

WARREN FERGUSON—Box Elder grad. . . . Son of Coach Earl Ferguson of the Bees who once played for Utah. . . . Should see plenty of Redskin football.

MACK McEUEEN—Arizona boy. . . . Lots of promise. . . . Shows good field generalship. . . . Good passer and ball handler.

MILT SMITH—That's right, Clyde, this is the same "Mitt" from a couple of years ago. . . . Returned from an L D S mission in time to change from scripture quoting to signal calling. . . . Will be remembered as a good passer and fine punter. . . . Will add strength to the playing-coach spot.

HALFBACKS

GEORGE BEAN—One of only two returning scats. . . . Fast and shifty. . . . Made acres of ground against the Loganites last year. . . . Even had to bulldoze his tiny frame as a fullback in 1949 when injuries were plenty. . . . Is a consistent producer of yardage and a dream to watch—if you can follow him in action.

JOHN DAWSON—Davis High boy. . . . Speed to burn. . . . Plays heads-up ball. . . . Only spring practice to go by but he's got a lot of stuff.

OTIS PIERCE—Davis High grad. . . . Good boy. . . . Showed up well in spring practice. . . . Fast and shifty, he'll show his heels to many opponents.

GENE PLAGA—Carbon High. . . . Good prospect. . . . Played frosh ball and very well, indeed. . . . Helped keep statistics on varsity games last year and wants to get his name in the ground-gaining columns.

LYNN SPINDLER—Box Elder High grad. . . . Plenty of zip. . . . Starts fast and knows how to keep moving.

DON SUKOWICZ—The other returning scat with Bean. . . . Did a lot of ground gaining for Utah last year. . . . Nice looking boy and a hard worker. . . . Fast and tricky. . . . Was a semi-fullback when the Utes got shorthanded. . . . Good ball handler.

FULLBACKS

LARRY ANDRUS—Jordan High School. . . . Hits line hard and low. . . . Showed improvement in every practice session during spring drills. . . .

KAY BERNSON—South High School grad. . . . Has lots of line bucking potential. . . . Shaping up well.

LOWELL EARL—"Wyoming" is as rough and tough a fullback as Utah has had in many a moon. . . . Most consistent ground gainer on the team. . . . Hits hard and low and is plenty fleet of foot. . . . Injuries slowed him down at mid-season but not for long. . . . Potential All-Conference stuff. . . . You'll see plenty of this boy.

BOB MATTHEWS—Utah's leading ball totter and scorer last season. . . . "Matty" is a great punter, but he'd rather get his yardage on the ground. . . . Like everyone else on the team he missed a game or two through injuries but he came back for more. . . . All-Conference for his line plunging, defensive greatness and his uncanny ability to catch passes thrown anywhere in his general direction.

MICKEY McKNIGHT—Came out a wee bit late last year, but did a good job. . . . Runs high and hard. . . . Transferred in from the Pacific Coast. . . . Has served warning that he wants to start some games this fall and will probably do it.

PLACE KICKER

ROY LaPORE—The something new that has been added to the team. . . . Fills a spot which could have won at least two more games for the Redskins last year.
